

It is immoral, unethical and illegal to air the program "Stolen Honor" in an attempt to smear John Kerry before the upcoming elections. When media is allowed to use their power to manipulate public opinion towards their personal agendas, something is indeed wrong. Why is Sinclair not broadcasting also an anti-Bush program or indeed a pro-Kerry program? What happened to equal time? In any case, to stoop to smear tactics in this day and age is truly a sad and disheartening state of affairs.
